THE MAN AND THE BIRDS

PAUL HARVEY'S CHRISTMAS STORY
By PAUL HARVEY, ABC RADIO

Unable to trace its proper parentage, I have designated this as my Christmas Story of the Man and the Birds. You know, THE Christmas Story, the God born a man in a manger and all that escapes some moderns, mostly, I think, because they seek complex answers to their questions and this one is so utterly simple. So for the cynics and the skeptics and the unconvinced I submit a modern parable.

Now the man to whom I'm going to introduce you was not a scrooge, he was a kind, decent, mostly good man. Generous to his family, upright in his dealings with other men. But he just didn't believe all that incarnation stuff which the churches proclaim at Christmas Time. It just didn't make sense and he was too honest to pretend otherwise. He just couldn't swallow the Jesus Story, about God coming to Earth as a man. "I'm truly sorry to distress you," he told his wife, "but I'm not going with you to church this Christmas Eve." He said he'd feel like a hypocrite. That he'd much rather just stay at home, but that he would wait up for them. And so he stayed and they went to the midnight service.

Shortly after the family drove away in the car, snow began to fall. He went to the window to watch the flurries getting heavier and heavier and then went back to his fireside chair and began to read his newspaper.

Minutes later he was startled by a thudding sound. Then another, and then another. Sort of a thump or a thud. At first, he thought someone must be throwing snowballs against his living room window. But when he went to the front door to investigate he found a flock of birds huddled miserably in the snow. They'd been caught in the storm and, in a desperate search for shelter, had tried to fly through his large landscape window.

Well, he couldn't let the poor creatures lie there and freeze, so he remembered the barn where his children stabled their pony. That would provide a warm shelter, if he could direct the birds to it.

Quickly he put on a coat and galoshes, tramped through the deepening snow to the barn. He opened the doors wide and turned on a light, but the birds did not come in. He figured food would entice them in. So he hurried back to the house, fetched bread crumbs, sprinkled them on the snow, making a trail to the yellow-lighted wide open doorway of the stable. But to his dismay, the birds ignored the bread crumbs, and continued to flap around helplessly in the snow. He tried catching them. He tried shooing them into the barn by walking around them waving his arms. Instead, they scattered in every direction, except into the warm, lighted barn.

And then, he realized, that they were afraid of him. To them, he reasoned, I am a strange and terrifying creature. If only I could think of some way to let them know that they can trust me. That I am not trying to hurt them, but to help them. But how? Because any move he made tended to frighten them, confuse them. They just would not follow. They would not be led or shooed because they feared him. "If only I could be a bird," he thought to himself, "and mingle with them and speak their language. Then I could tell them not to be afraid. Then I could show them the way to safe, warm ...to the safe warm barn. But I would have to be one of them so they could see, and hear and understand."

At that moment the church bells began to ring. The sound reached his ears above the sounds of the wind. And he stood there listening to the bells – Adeste Fidelis – listening to the bells pealing the glad tidings of Christmas. And he sank to his knees in the snow.

AT VANDERBURG

Christmas... Sing the Joyful Song!

A special Christmas Cantata will be shared on Sun. Dec. 14th during the 10:00 a.m. blended service. Featuring a medley of traditional Christmas songs, our Vanderburg choir will usher you into the Christmas spirit!

And there were shepherds living out in the fields nearby, keeping watch over their flocks at night. An angel of the Lord appeared to them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified. But the angel said to them, "Do not be afraid. I bring you good news that will cause great joy for all the people. Today in the town of David a Savior has been born to you; he is the Messiah, the Lord. This will be a sign to you: You will find a baby wrapped in cloths and lying in a manger."

FRIENDSGIVING

Vanderburg's Young Adults hosted our first event, Friendsgiving, on November 16th, 2025.

We had a great turn out with 18 attendees and over a half dozen additional guests. We enjoyed great food and fellowship, with our favorites being Cashion's smoked turkey, the Hoff's potato salad, and the Naas' homemade ice cream!

Together, we wrote and signed 150 Christmas cards for Iredell County nursing homes: "For unto us a Child is born, unto us a Son is given; And the government will be upon His shoulder. And His name will be called Wonderful, Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace." - Isaiah 9:6

A big thank you everyone who came to the event or supported it. We wish y'all a blessed and safe December!

MOVIE NIGHT

On Friday, November 21st, the Outreach Committee hosted its second Movie Night, featuring the children's film Happy Feet. Although a light sprinkle encouraged us to move the event indoors, the evening was still full of energy and joy. Families enjoyed popcorn, candy, and drinks while watching the movie together.

One highlight of the night was the children dancing along with the penguins; their excitement brought so much life to the room! We hope to see you at our next event!

NEWS & EVENTS

NEWS FROM THE SPRC

As 2025 is coming to an end, I would like to thank the SPRC Committee for the work they have done in the past year. I know I have made mistakes, but they were not intentional. When I took the job as Chairman of this Committee, I said it would be spirit led and that is what I tried to do.

As all of you know by now, Pastor Melanie and Keith have left us and went where the Holy Spirit has led them to go. We thank them for what they have done for us and they will be surely missed. We wish them well.

A lot has happened in the last couple of weeks under the leadership of Will Van Wieren, the presiding elder of the Global Methodist Church for our area. The SPRC has acquired a new interim minister, Buddy Compton. Buddy is a Mooresville resident, and already knows several of our members. Buddy came out of retirement to serve us, and I am sure he will tell us how the Holy Spirit led him to be with us.

My prayer is that we support Buddy and his wife, Monte in all that they try to do for us. Let us use this time as a renewal in our church. We look forward to a revival in our church like we have never seen. Buckle up, because Buddy is fired up and ready to serve us!

Finally, I would like to thank you for entrusting the SPRC to serve you in such a way.

Thank You,
John Freeze

The SPRC Committee is made up of the following individuals:

John Freeze, Chair
Lynn Neill, Vice Chair
Sandra Sherrill
Phil Coleman
Sheila Moore

The Sunday School 9:00 AM hour offers classes for all ages! Choose from any of these classes geared to help you dig deeper in the Word!

We need volunteers to serve as the Safe Sanctuary person in the kids Sunday School class. We just need your presence. You will not have to help with the class or prepare a lesson. If enough are willing to serve, a schedule will be made.

As a church, we need to have a nursery available for visitors as well as church members. See Susan Fogleman if you are interested in helping with this ministry. The service is streamed live, for nursery workers to enjoy.

CHILDREN & PRE-TEEN

Our children use the series All-in-One Sunday School, designed for preschool-12 yrs old. The teachers have enjoyed combining the classes and learning together.

All children are welcome each Sunday. You will find them in room 115 on the Pre-school Hall.

Susan Fogleman and Sarah Davis will be joining the team to rotate teachers. This will allow for teachers to have the opportunity to enjoy being a part of a Sunday School class or take some needed time of rest. If you feel led to stop by and give the leaders a hand, they would appreciate it!

MISSION & OUTREACH

Your gifts and donations are greatly appreciated as we continue to be the hands and feet of Jesus! May God bless you abundantly!

Vanderburg budget funds to annually support FeedNC, Christian Mission and Samaritan's Purse. We regularly receive newsletters highlighting the work they do in support of individuals and families. In addition to these regular Mission contributions, our Circle of Friends and the Vanderburg Methodist Men make contributions to other worthwhile organizations.

1 Supporting FeedNC

At FeedNC, everyone is welcome to enjoy lunch at Donoghue's Open Door. From 9:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. M-F, all are welcome to choose from their menu offerings and enjoy meals at community tables. There is no charge for the food, but donations are accepted. Last year alone, 50K meals were served.

2 Our Daily Bread

Did you know that because of your giving, we are able to support Our Daily Bread each quarter.

More than just the daily devotion, a recent letter highlighted the work they do in prison ministry. Last year, to help alleviate loneliness, Our Daily Bread sent 65,000 Christmas Hope Packets that included a Christmas Card, an Armor Book and snacks.

3 Supporting Samaritan's Purse

Recently, Samaritan's Purse shared that the organization was prepared in advance for Hurricane Melissa that was to hit Jamaica last month. In addition to much needed supplies, they had an emergency field hospital up and running. The hospital has 30 inpatient beds, with staff and equipment to run an operating room, ICU, and emergency room. As of the update, they had treated 500 patients affected by the hurricane.

4 Supporting Christian Mission

Christian Mission recently shared that in 2024, they served over 6600 individuals, a 43% increase over the year before. They are grateful for the support of the community as they continue to help families move toward stability and self-sufficiency.

5 Supporting Area Ministries & Organizations

Because of your generosity you, along with the Circle of Friends supported Freedom Connections, the ministry of our staff members, Jill Lowe and Lisa Zeggert, with canned food items and toys to be shared with families in the Appalachia's at Christmas. The Circle of Friends also provided desserts for the ministry's Thanksgiving Day meal delivery to area widows and our Meals on Wheels neighbors. Also for December, the Outreach Team, chaired by Melissa Fulbright is leading church members to support the Preschool's Reverse Advent Calendar drive. Copies of the weekly food items requested are available in the Narthex or can be found on Facebook. Thank you for blessing all these worthwhile organizations!

CHRISTMAS IS COMING!

What happened to November? The month was filled with fun and laughter. One of our grandparents provided a Thanksgiving meal for the children. We are thankful for the love and support from our families.

Our annual Reverse Advent event begins December 1. We invite our children, parents, and church members to join us by donating non-perishable food items. Items will be delivered to food banks. Items may be dropped off in the fellowship hall or at the preschool. See the bulletin insert for more information.

Parents' Night Out for our preschoolers and their siblings will be December 5 (6pm-9pm). We hope this will be an annual event/fundraiser. Our staff is planning crafts, games, and more!

Join us for our Christmas celebration on Friday, December 19 at 10:30am. We begin the festivities with singing in the sanctuary and then will move to the fellowship hall for crafts and cookie decorating. I've heard we can expect a special visitor from The North Pole!
